This will leave 2,000 pupils, making up the total estimate of 13,000, to be accommodated in junior high schools. In the present enrolment of the high schools, somewhat more than 40 per cent of the pupils are in the first year, or the ninth grade. Should this proportion continue, as it is likely to do, the organization into junior high schools of even much less than onehalf of all ninth grade pupils, the proportion estimated, would relieve the senior high schools to...

Reviews

Extensive information for book fans. It is written in basic words and never hard to understand. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
