In South Africa, the narrator, Paul, drifts between an ideal world, where he is happily married to his partner Nirraz, and a dark and horrible nightmare where an unidentified madman is torturing him in the gay couple s own wine cellar. Nirraz is a sociologist and his lover Paul teaches biology at the local school. The couple have the special ability to experience the same grotesque dreams - they recite their ten dreams to a psychologist. The couple are friends with their neighbour Sheila, a divorcee, her boyfriend Peter and her son Liam, who gets close to the gay couple. There is lots of goings on in the jacuzzi of the gay couple s home and an atmosphere of sexual jealousy arises. The madman s life and the ten dreams are connected to a remote village in India where an eighty-year-old hermaphrodite virgin, Shamele, is responsible for creating dream pills. The pills allow one to dream of one s death and one s reincarnation. A yellow butterfly carved out of a stone taken from the mountain near the village is believed to be cursed and was sold to a South African tourist - the yellow butterfly became an integral part of the madman s childhood. Paul s happy world starts crumbling as terrible events take place in his hometown. His ideal world merges with his nightmare in the cellar and a macarbe twist at the end plunges him into a dark world where the fates of the torturer and his helpless victim are finally decided. This book is not for the feint hearted.
