Excerpt: .that in the coming years its interests will always find as intelligent and faithful guardians as those who are to-day represented by their president, whom I now have the pleasure of introducing to you, --Mr. Gilmore of Manchester. REMARKS BY HON. GEORGE C. GILMORE IN BEHALF OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE STATE LIBRARY. Little, I apprehend, is expected of the local management in the exercises of to-day, our duties being all of the future, and it would certainly be presumption on my part to attempt to interest this large audience by anything I might say, especially so when our distinguished guests are waiting on the platform to be heard, ---men who have given a life time to library management. But I cannot forbear saying a few words to place on record the early efforts of the inhabitants of the towns in this state to establish libraries. Dover is undoubtedly entitled to the honor of having been the first in the list, as early as July, 1776, although the charter for her social library was not granted until December 18, 1792; Rochester s social library chartered February 14, 1794; Portsmouth s and Tamworth s both the same date, June 14, 1796, the above being the first four charters granted; from 1792 to 1800, sixty, and from 1801 to 1883, one hundred and eighty-seven, making a total of two hundred and forty-seven, and at the present time only sixty towns are without a library. The petitioners...
