But does it never happen that there turns up one among all your admirers without such disqualifying attributes as you describe I am afraid, mistress Willy-nilly, that though doubtless very merciful, you may be a trifle too difficult to please. Did you never chance to turn your eyes round, --as you say that young maidens are forbidden to do, --and find that they lighted upon something to your taste Come now, speak out, never mind confessing to me that you have looked a little high I and Bobadil chuckled, and settled himself into his fine clothes with a waggish air. I might certainly make such a confession to you better than to...
