General Accounting Office, 2001 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)54857462 Subject: Small business -- United States -- Personnel management. Excerpt: . . . businesses must identify, recruit, and hire workers to fill current job vacancies. Additionally, businesses must maintain and upgrade the skills of the existing workforce to stay current with changes in technology and allow for future growth. Consortia can be instrumental in helping businesses connect with prospective employees who are equipped with the appropriate job skills and, in some cases, the pre-employment skills and social supports they need to be successful jobholders. In the consortia we reviewed, we found a variety of activities that were designed to meet businesses immediate employment needs, including job fairs to provide a venue for businesses and prospective employees to come together, initiatives with community-based organizations that targeted the disadvantaged, and WIA one-stop job centers. Specific examples of what we found include the following: In Milwaukee, the WRTP - a consortium intermediary organization - worked with community-based organizations such as the YWCA and the Milwaukee Housing Authority to link businesses with pools of potential...
