Brand New Book  Print on Demand .PHYSICIAN ASSISTANT HAS BEEN identified as one of the very best jobs in America. The reasons for the career s appeal are striking: Jobs available everywhere Relatively fast entry - the post-graduate education averages just 27 months Excellent pay starting at around $90,000 with the potential to go much higher Flexibility to practice in different specialty areas without additional education Job growth that is nearly twice as fast as most other occupations Exceptional work/life balance Physician assistants, commonly called PAs, practice medicine under the supervision of a physician.
