Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Notable Speeches by Notable Speakers of the Greater West This book has been compiled for the purpose of placing in permanent and accessible form some of the more notable speeches of the men who have contributed to the intellectual development of California. The aim has been to make a collection of speeches that would be a source of inspiration to students and others. The orations of Cicero, Demosthenes, and Burke may serve better as models of style, but they lack contemporary interest. Thomas B. Reed, in a collection of examples of modern eloquence, in ten volumes of four hundred pages each, failed to find place for any of the speeches of the men of the Greater West. This book shows that in effective oral expression California has plenty of material. The various selections represent the several types of oratory, - the after-dinner remarks, the address of welcome, the eulogy, the occasional oration, the ethical sermon, and the stump speech. The editor has drawn upon all classes for his material, - the university president, the ship-builder,...
