Accordingly a meeting of the Modern Language teachers of Worcester County was held in the Worcester City Hall on Nov. 27, 1905, to discuss the advisability of forming another group. The meeting was addressed by Professor Fay, the President of the Association, who gave the movement his hearty encouragement. At the close of his address the meeting voted to petition the Directors of the Association to be admitted as the Worcester Group and elected the following list of officers: Chairman, S. P. Capen, Clark University; Vice-Chairman, G. F. Cole, Worcester South High School; Secretary, Eleanor Conlon, Worcester South High School; Librarian, F. A. Wilson, Worcester Classical High School; Programme Committee, F...
