Date of conviction, settlement, plea agreement, or finding of Guardian liability state Case Victim (s) Case details Company officers mismanaged or stole an estimated 3 At least 78 victims November 2004 Professional 454, 416 from their wards between about 1998 and 2002, guardian agency according to the information provided to Alaskas U. S. Alaska Bankruptcy Court by a trustee. Executive director used company checks to pay for his utility bills, mortgage payments, credit card bills, medical expenses, and church camp for his children. One mentally ill veterans inheritance was depleted from 90, 000 to almost nothing over 3 years in the early to mid 1990s in part because the company purchased mental health services at rates 1, 500 percent higher than necessary, made improper travel charges, and charged twice for the same services. Victims received partial restitution through bankruptcy proceedings, but no criminal charges were filed. Two staff in the office of the public guardian stole a 4 20 senior and January 2006 Office of the Public combined total of 97, 000 from senior and disabled public disabled victims October 2008 Guardian California wards with no one else to care for them. One woman admitted stealing 90, 000 by cashing victims pension and Social Security checks while working temporarily in the public guardians office. She testified that a permanent staff member had taught her to steal and split the proceeds with her. The permanent guardian used victims funds to buy herself jewelry, clothing, and electronics and stole valuables from their homes. The prosecutor and nursing home staff said...
